

A School of Engineering Seminar
San Francisco State University

Hensel Phelps
Construction
Co. Information
Session

Charles Chiparo

Project Manager
Hensel Phelps Co.

Oct 15, 2012
Monday

1.10-2pm

SCI 256

Synopsis:

Hensel Phelps Construction Company is a nationally-recognized general contract or with District Offices all over the United States. In California, Hensel Phelps have offices in San Jose and Irvine. Charles Chiparo, a project manager at Hensel Phelps, will present information about the company, including Corporate Overview, Office Locations, Industry Sectors, Career Opportunities, Compensation, and Employee Ownership. Students interested in a career with the company are encouraged to bring cover letters and resumes to this seminar. First rounds of interview will be conducted in late October and second rounds will be in mid-November.

Speaker Bio:

Charles Chiparo is a Project Engineer at Hensel Phelps Construction Company in San Jose, CA, since 2001. Previously, he was an engineer at Pickus Construction Co. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Construction Management from Bradley University in 1996.

For inquiries, please contact Dr. Kwok Siong Teh at ksteh@sfsu.edu