

SAN FRANCISCO STATE UNIVERSITY

CENTER FOR SCIENCE & MATHEMATICS EDUCATION

COMMIT TO BECOMING A MATH AND SCIENCE TEACHER

Noyce STAJES (STEM Teaching Toward a Just and Equitable Society), a NSF-funded scholarship program, provides funding and community for STEM students committed to teaching science and mathematics in high need school districts.

AWARDS UP TO 16K
/YEAR

Application Info:

Eligibility:

- Be an SFSU undergraduate student close to graduating in a STEM discipline or a STEM credential student.
- Be eligible for financial aid.
- Be a U.S. citizen or a permanent resident.

Application
Deadline
EXTENDED! April 28,
2023 for Fall '23

More Information

✉ Contact Kim Seashore at kimseash@sfsu.edu